UO MANOJ KUMAR , CDT AAKASH of GDC KARSOG successfully completed a 10-day Army Attachment Camp at 15 KUMAON (Indore) Infantry Battalion, Mamun Cantt, Pathankot.

Their action-packed camp began with an opening address, followed by classes on army structure, map reading, and sports periods. They also underwent rigorous physical training, including PT classes and drill sessions with instructors from the Indian Military Academy (IMA).

In addition to their physical training, they also received comprehensive training on weapon handling, including the INSAS rifle and got to experience the thrill of firing at the Gurj Reflex Shooting Range. They also visited the 49th Armored Regiment, where they learned about the history and operations of tanks and even got to ride the T72 tank!

The camp also included lectures on leadership, morale and motivation, as well as classes on first aid, army aviation and ammunition and grenades. They also participated in cultural activities, including a visit to the RAAVI Theatre, where they learned about the history and achievements of the Kumaon Regiment.
