Speaker Profile: Shri Nek Ram Sharma

Shri Nek Ram Sharma, hailing from Nanj village in Mandi district, Himachal Pradesh, is a celebrated natural farmer and an advocate of traditional millet cultivation. Awarded the prestigious Padma Shri by the President of India in 2023, Shri Nek Ram has dedicated his life to preserving and promoting nine endangered varieties of millet. His journey toward sustainable agriculture began in 1992 when he joined the countrywide literacy campaign. Though initially aspiring for a government job, fate led him to farming.

With guidance from experts at Dr. Yashwant Singh Parmar University of Horticulture and Forestry and Agricultural University Dharwad, Shri Nek Ram pioneered the natural farming of coarse grains like Kangni, Kodra, Sonk, and other traditional crops such as desi maize and barley. He has inspired over 20,000 farmers to adopt natural farming practices, emphasizing the health benefits of millet and organic agriculture.

In recognition of his efforts, 2023 was declared the "International Year of Millets" by the United Nations, underlining the global significance of his work. Shri Nek Ram's contributions have revived traditional farming methods that are resilient to climate change, ensuring the preservation of local crops and fostering healthier diets.

Shri Nek Ram's passion for natural farming has made him a key figure in the revival of traditional agriculture, contributing immensely to the agricultural landscape of India. Some glimpses of the event
