2.16 College Magazine Published

Kamaksha is the annual college magazine of Government College Karsog, which serves as a vibrant platform for students and faculty to express their literary and creative talents. The magazine showcases a wide range of contributions including poems, essays, articles, short stories, and academic write-ups in languages such as English, Hindi, and Pahari, along with sections related to science and other subjects. It reflects the intellectual, cultural, and creative spirit of the institution while encouraging students to develop their writing skills and critical thinking abilities. Through Kamaksha, the college promotes creativity, originality, and active participation in academic and cultural pursuits.
