5.3 Social impact of extension activities

The college doesn't undertake initiatives for applause or external validation, yet many Government bodies and NGOs have recognized the impact of the activities, underscoring how these efforts are resonating beyond campus and contributing meaningfully to the wider community.

- Appreciation from Karsog Forest Department:
Received a commendation letter recognising the college's environmental initiatives
- Collaborating Agency Appreciation (Blood Donation Camps):
Acknowledged for helping collect 70 units of blood during the campus drives
- Certificate of Appreciation from the Local administration (Panchayat Pradhan):
For the exemplary and selfless services rendered by the students in adopted villages
- Rajya Puraskar Winners:
Four students were honored with the Rajya Puraskar for their outstanding social work.
